RE: Financial Reports

As is the case often in the Fall, as we send out our board packets, I am still working diligently on "closing the books" from the previous school/fiscal year. Until I completely finish this task, the beginning balances for the 2010-11 fiscal year are not carried forward onto the new year's reports.

Since the "Budget Status Reports" that I run monthly for you, rely on beginning balances to properly display the district's financial condition, I think it would be best to not include those this month. I should have the 2009-10 books closed well in advance of next meeting, so you will see those reports again next month.
