

The La Center School District does not provide medical insurance coverage for students who may be injured at school or as a result of participation on athletic teams. Parents are responsible for any medical expenses if their child gets hurt during the school day or while participating in school activities. Below is the information on how to purchase Student Accident Insurance, or you can visit this website:

<https://www.myers-stevens.com/enrollment-page/>